

Financial Affidavit For International Students (F1 & J1)

To receive an F-1 or J-1 visa, applicants must provide evidence that they have sufficient funds to cover their first year of study in the U.S. Costs indicated on the table are for standard undergraduate and graduate programs. Some graduate professional programs, such as MBA and credential require higher tuition. Please refer to program website for cost information if you are enrolling in a graduate professional program.

Estimate of Expense (fall and spring unless otherwise specified)	Undergraduate (24 units / 2 semesters)	Graduate (16 units / semesters)
California State Tuition & Campus Based Fees*	$7,952	$9,386
Non-Resident Tuition Fees ($396 per unit)	$9,504	$6,336
Books and Materials	$1,854	$1,854
Housing	$10,000	$10,000
Food (full meal plan: 17 meals per week)	$5,000	$5,000
Personal Expenses	$3,500	$3,500
Health Insurance (annual fee, includes summer)	$300	$300
TOTAL	$38,110	$36,376

* The California State University (CSU) makes every effort to keep student costs to a minimum. Fees listed in published schedules or student accounts may need to be increased when public funding is inadequate. Therefore, the CSU must reserve the right, even after initial fee payments are made, to increase or modify any listed fees, without notice, until the date when instruction for a particular semester has begun.

 Health Insurance typically increases annually; for the most up-to-date costs, please visit www.csuhealthlink.com/enroll

 For MBA only - $270 per unit professional fee (additional $4320 per year). Graduate students applying for the Computer and Engineering Science, Psychology, Organization Development, Spanish, or EMBA programs will pay through the Extended Education (see website for tuition/fee structure). Housing, food, personal expense and health insurance estimates remain the same.

Please note that international travel and extraordinary personal expenses are not included in the cost estimates above.

Financial aid is not available to international students.
